No. 2713. REVISED BASIC AGREEMENT¹ FOR THE PROVISION OF TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS, THE INTERNATIONAL LABOUR ORGANISATION, THE FOOD AND AGRICULTURE ORGANIZATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS, THE UNITED NATIONS EDUCATIONAL, SCIENTIFIC AND CULTURAL ORGANIZATION, THE INTERNATIONAL CIVIL AVIATION ORGANIZATION, THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA. SIGNED AT DJAKARTA, ON 29 OCTOBER 1954

The United Nations, the International Labour Organisation, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, the International Civil Aviation Organization and the World Health Organization (hereinafter called "the Organisations"), members of the Technical Assistance Board, and the Government of the Republic of Indonesia (hereinafter called "the Government");

DESIRING to give effect to the resolutions and decisions relating to technical assistance of the Organisations, which are intended to promote the economic and social progress and development of peoples;

HAVE ENTERED into this Agreement in a spirit of friendly co-operation.

Article I

FURNISHING OF TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

1. The Organisations shall render technical assistance to the Government subject to the availability of the necessary funds. The Organisations, acting jointly or separately, and the Government shall co-operate in arranging, on the basis of the requests received from the Government and approved by the Organisations concerned, mutually agreeable programmes of operations for the carrying out of technical assistance activities.

2. Such technical assistance shall be furnished and received in accordance with the relevant resolutions and decisions of the assemblies, conferences and other organs of the Organisations; technical assistance rendered within the framework of the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance for Economic Development of Under-Developed Countries shall, in particular, be furnished and received in accordance with the Observations and Guiding Principles set forth in annex I of resolution 222 A (IX) of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations of 15 August 1949.¹

3. Such technical assistance may consist of :

(a) Making available the services of experts, in order to render advice and assistance to or through the Government;

(b) Organizing and conducting seminars, training programmes, demonstration projects, expert working groups and related activities in such places as may be mutually agreed;

(c) Awarding scholarships and fellowships or making other arrangements under which candidates nominated by the Government and approved by the Organisations concerned shall study or receive training outside the country;

(d) Preparing and executing pilot projects, tests, experiments or research in such places as may be mutually agreed;

(e) Providing any other form of technical assistance which may be agreed upon by the Organisations and the Government.

4. (a) Experts who are to render advice and assistance to or through the Government shall be selected by the Organisations in consultation with the Government. They shall be responsible to the Organisations concerned.

(b) In the performance of their duties, the experts shall act in close consultation with the Government and with persons or bodies so authorized by the Government, and shall comply with instructions from the Government as may be appropriate to the nature of their duties and the assistance to be given and as may be mutually agreed upon between the Organisations concerned and the Government.

(c) The experts shall, in the course of their advisory work, make every effort to instruct any technical staff the Government may associate with them, in their professional methods, techniques, and practices, and in the principles on which these are based.

5. Any technical equipment or supplies which may be furnished by the Organisations shall remain their property unless and until such time as title may be transferred on terms and conditions mutually agreed upon between the Organisations concerned and the Government.

6. The technical assistance rendered pursuant to the terms of this Agreement is in the exclusive interest and for the exclusive benefit of the people and Government of the Republic of Indonesia. In recognition thereof, the Government shall undertake to bear all risks and claims resulting from, occurring in the course of, or otherwise connected with any operation covered by this Agreement. Without restricting the generality of the preceding sentence, the Government shall indemnify and hold harmless the Organisations and their experts, agents or employees against any and all liability suits, actions, demands, damages, costs or fees on account of death, injuries to person or property, or any other losses resulting from or connected with any act or omission performed in the course of operations covered by this Agreement.

Article II

CO-OPERATION OF THE GOVERNMENT CONCERNING TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

1. The Government shall do everything within its means to ensure the effective use of the technical assistance provided, and, in particular agrees to apply to the fullest possible extent the provisions set forth in annex I to resolution 222 A (IX) of the Economic and Social Council under the heading "Participation of Requesting Governments".

2. The Government and the Organisations concerned shall consult together regarding the publication, as appropriate, of any findings and reports of experts that may prove of benefit to other countries and to the Organisations themselves.

3. In any case, the Government will, as far as practicable, make available to the Organisations concerned, information on the actions taken as a consequence of the assistance rendered and on the results achieved.

4. The Government shall associate with the experts such technical staff as may be mutually agreed upon and as may be necessary to give full effect to the provisions of article I, paragraph 4(c) above.

Article III

ADMINISTRATIVE AND FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS OF THE ORGANISATIONS

1. The Organisations shall defray, in full or in part, as may be mutually agreed upon, the costs necessary to the technical assistance which are payable outside Indonesia (hereinafter called "the country") as follows:

- (a) The salaries of the experts;
- (b) The costs of transportation and subsistence of the experts during their travel to and from the point of entry into the country;
