MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

FOR

CONSULTATIONS

BETWEEN

THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC

AND THE

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

The Argentine Republic and the Republic of Kenya, hereinafter called "the Parties";

RECOGNIZING the dynamic development of their bilateral relations and the potential for significant growth of cooperation in several sectors;

RECOGNIZING the benefits of those consultations and exchange of views of the bilateral issues and international affairs of common interest;

AIMING AT establishing a practical and efficient and high-level mechanism of political consultations;

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1

1. The Parties hereby establish a bilateral mechanism (hereinafter referred to as "the Consultations") to carry out regular consultations to evaluate bilateral relations, to exchange points of view about bilateral and International issues and to coordinate their positions on subjects of mutual interest within the framework of international institutions and fora.
2. The Embassies of both Parties in third countries, as well as the missions to international organizations, will also strengthen contacts for coordination on issues of common interest.

3. Within the framework of their relevant competence, the Parties will collaborate to stimulate relations between governmental institutions from their countries.

Article 2

1. Delegations to the consultation meetings shall be chaired by the Foreign Ministers or by other duly accredited senior officials.
2. Such consultations will be held alternately in the Argentine Republic and the Republic of Kenya, their dates and agenda to be agreed through diplomatic channels.

Article 3

The Parties shall endeavour to coordinate their positions regarding the subjects brought for discussions at the regular and emergency international meetings by conducting consultations related to these subjects.

Article 4

Study or working groups may be established through the joint decision – making process to analyze specific matters.

Article 5

1. This Memorandum of Understanding may be amended by mutual consent of the Parties through diplomatic channels.
2. Any dispute between the Parties concerning the interpretation and implementation of this document shall be settled through consultations or negotiations.
