[July 10, 1956]

Excellency :

I have the honor to refer to conversations which have taken place between representatives of our two Governments, relating to guaranties authorized by Section 413 (b) (4) of the Mutual Security Act of 1954. I also have the honor to confirm the following understanding reached as a result of these conversations.

1. The Governments of Jordan and of the United States of America will, upon request of either of them, consult respecting projects in Jordan proposed by nationals of the United States of America with regard to which guaranties under Section 413 (b) (4) of the Mutual Security Act of 1954 have been made or are under consideration.

2. The Government of the United States of America agrees that it will issue no guaranty with regard to any project unless it is approved by the Government of Jordan.

3. With respect to such guaranties extending to projects which are approved by the Government of Jordan in accordance with the provisions of the aforesaid Section 413 (b) (4), the Government of Jordan agrees :

a. That if the Government of the United States of America makes payment in United States dollars to any person under any such guaranty, the Government of Jordan will recognize the transfer to the United States of America of any right, title or interest of such person in assets, currency, credits, or other property on account of which such payment was made and the subrogation of the United States of America to any claim or cause of action, or right of such person arising in connection therewith;

b. That Jordan Dinar amounts acquired by the Government of the United States of America pursuant to such guaranties shall be accorded treatment not less favorable
